Antioch family hurt in car-van crash

Three members of an Antioch family were injured in a fatal car-van collision, at 12:32 p.m., on Thursday, Sept. 2, at the intersection of Hwys. 36 and K, in Racine County.

According to a representative of the Racine County Sheriff's Dept., a van belonging to the Swatek Sales Corp., Lake Geneva, driven by Grant Swatek, 21, rural Brighton, which was westbound on Hwy. K, failed to stop for a stop sign at the intersection. The van struck a station wagon, driven by Shirley Rosinski, 30, Antioch.

Swatek, who died at the scene of the accident of massive head and chest injuries, was pronounced dead at Burlington Memorial Hospital by Milton A. Stoffel, deputy medical examiner of Racine County.

Charles Prange, 41, Trevor, also an employee of Swatek Sales Corp., a passenger in the van, was taken to Burlington Memorial where he is in stable condition with a sprained neck.

The seven passengers in the station wagon were also transported to Burlington Memorial by the Waterford Rescue Squad.

Shirley Rosinski is in stable condition after suffering multiple injuries. Her children, Melody, 4, and Joshua, 2, were treated for bruises and contusions and released from the hospital.

Another passenger in the station wagon, Mary Rausch, 25, rural Burlington, was transferred to St. Mary's Hospital, Racine, with multiple head lacerations. Debbie Bienenam, 23, Waterford, suffered multiple contusions and Shayne Bienenam, 4, sustained a head injury. All were reported to be in stable condition.

Amy Bienenam, two weeks, was found to have suffered no injuries and was released from the hospital.

'Landfill not an issue'

Churchill stands pat on firm's commitment

by ROGER RUTHHART
Managing Editor

Robert Churchill, candidate for the State House in the 62nd district, says his law firm's involvement in the Waste Management landfill petition hearings has not hurt his campaign or his candidacy.

Churchill, admitting that some people who vote their emotions instead of examining the candidates and the issues, may not vote for him because of his law firm's involvement with Waste Management. But Churchill adamantly contends that the landfill is a local issue, not one for the state representative race, and that the campaign has many much more important issues to be addressed.

"I can tell you that I have not lost one campaign worker or any contributions as a result of my law firm's involvement," said Churchill. He admitted that much of Antioch supported Jim Olson in the Republican Primary and some of those people may not become active in his camp as a result of the controversy. The issue may end up costing him some votes in November, although he believes in the long run it won't.

"How is it possible for Mr. Churchill's firm to represent Waste Management's side of this issue as he asks the people to place their trust in him to represent them, without answering some serious questions of ethics and conflict of interest?" said Churchill's opponent, Bob Gesiakowski of Antioch.

"I find this particular situation repugnant and inexcusable. We cannot afford to sit back and accept Mr. Churchill's conduct and callous disregard for the public interest," said Gesiakowski recently.

"I say, Stop the Landfill, Dump it on Churchill," said Gesiakowski.

Churchill does agree on one thing. It is a question of ethics...his own and those of his law firm.

"Months before I decided to run for office, we (the law firm) had a contractual agreement with Waste Management. I am not the attorney for Waste Management. Two partners in the firm committed the firm to working for Waste Management long before I filed my petitions," Churchill explained.

Churchill said that the Antioch landfill siting is not an issue in the campaign because he is running for the state house of representatives and the landfill hearings are a matter before the county board. "You didn't see Betty Lou Reed or Don Deuster, your current state representatives at the hearings did you?" said Churchill.

He added that there was no conflict of interest or unethical practice involved. "My firm didn't represent both sides and because I'm an employee doesn't mean I have the same personal beliefs as to the disposition of the case," he noted.

"I'm campaigning for state representative so using the landfill as an issue in the election is like comparing apples and oranges," he said.

Churchill said that his firm never considered backing down in its commitment to (Continued on Page 3)

Postal Council aids Antioch businessmen

by DIANA KUYPER

Businessmen who use the mails can benefit from the newly-formed Chain O' Lakes Postal Customer Council, which will meet Thursday, Sept. 9 at 10 a.m. at the Country House in Antioch.

"It's going to be a good way to discuss problems. I absolutely recommend that area businessmen attend," Andrew Bernhardt, president of the State Bank of Antioch, said.

Bernhardt will co-chair the first meeting with Mary Ann DeRemer, postmaster of Antiotch. Charles Kemp, president of Second Federal Savings and Loan of Chicago, Fox Lake, will act as secretary-treasurer.

According to Marty Kowalczyk, superintendent of postal operations at the Antioch Post Office, the council is being formed to establish a working relationship between the business community and the postal service. "Basically we will explain what the post office has to offer, how the businessman can save money, and in turn we'll find out what the business community needs, and what their problems are," Kowalczyk said.

The council welcomes anyone from the Chain O' Lakes area to attend. Participating post offices include Antioch, Round Lake, Fox Lake, Grayslake and Lake Villa.

"Speaking just for our bank, we ship and receive thousands of pieces of mail a day," Bernhardt said. "I know we're vitally concerned about service. This is going to be a good way to discuss problems, and I hope we get a good turnout."

If successful, meetings will be held quarterly. A luncheon buffet will follow the meeting at the Country House at noon. Anyone interested can contact DeRemer at the Antioch Post Office, (312) 395-0097 or Ernie Plotz, postmaster of Grayslake, (312) 223-2787.

Local teachers fail to ratify new contract

According to Supt. Don Skidmore, of Antioch Grade School, the Antioch Grade School Board of Education has ratified a new contract with district teachers contract pending the teacher's ratification.

But the teachers have failed to ratify the contract as it stood. Skidmore said that, until the matter can be settled, he has been instructed to administer the school district according to the terms of the contract that was negotiated including paying the salaries offered in the negotiations.

The board is now scheduled to meet with representatives of the teachers on Tuesday, Sept. 7, to discuss the reasons for the nonratification by the teachers.

Chamber hears Stahler speak on 'Hoopla'

by GLORIA DAVIS

The second seminar for small businesses, sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, was presented at the Windjammer Restaurant.

The turnout was a good one, with over 70 local business people there, not only to enjoy each other's camaraderie, but mainly to hear what helpful merchandising tricks Public Relations (PR) Expert Richard Stahler had to give.

Stahler, senior vice-president of the Cushman Agency, said that the job of those in public relations was to create a corporate or business image. He added that even though the PR man was usually allocated only the crumbs of every advertising budget, he and his peers were probably responsible for supplying at least 87 percent of the copy heard and read in the media.

Stahler then gave many examples of the successful campaigns that his company had waged in behalf of such clients as Orange Crush, Maytag etc.

His short talk, during which he used slides for illustration, showed how good public relations and advertising can make or break a product or business. The seminar was held on Tuesday, August 28.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Dr. R. A. Sona, OPTOMETRIST
"A" FOR EYE HELP

About 95% of all children's eye problems can be corrected today either in whole or in part. That's a "straight A" in anyone's book.

The most common problems are those affecting the ability to see clearly and sharply. Myopia (near-sightedness) causes near objects to be seen more clearly than objects at a distance. With hyperopia (far-sightedness) objects are seen more clearly at a distance, but close-up objects are sometimes blurred and difficult to bring into focus. Astigmatism can cause objects to be distorted and will not allow all portions of an object to be seen in focus at one time. These are relatively straightforward vision problems to identify through an eye examination and to correct if needed.

Unfortunately, you probably won't hear about these problems from children. If they see chalkboards or book pages as blurs, they'll assume everyone does. Since 80% of learning is through vision, give your child a head start with an eye examination BEFORE entering school. That will give you an "A" for effort whether your child's vision needs help or not.

CRACKED TEETH

Question

I get a sharp pain in my tooth when I bite down, but my dentist sees no cavities. What can be wrong?

Answer

Some causes of dental pain are tougher to find than others. One frequently mysterious cause of dental pain has been called "cracked tooth syndrome." The problem is that this doesn't show up on x-rays, and often can't be seen at all. Small cracks in teeth can cause severe pain, and can lead in some cases to loss of the tooth. Sometimes, the presence of cracked tooth syndrome can be determined by careful probing of the tooth by a dentist. It may be necessary to remove what appear to be perfectly good fillings in order to look for cracks within the tooth. Occasionally, no cause for the pain can be found. It may be necessary to watch and wait. Often the pain clears up by itself. In other cases the cause becomes more obvious with time.

Churchill stands firm on firm's commitment

Waste Management. "Regardless of my personal feelings, there is no way my firm would renege on its commitment," he said.

"I'm a man of my word and I don't back down just because of a little political heat. THAT would be unethical," said Churchill. "When I'm in office I will represent them with that same commitment that I represent a client in private practice," Churchill said.

"When I make a commitment, I live up to that commitment, even though I know this was unpopular with some citizens of the district. I believe that most of the citizens would not want me to renege on that commitment and if I did, then they wouldn't be able to trust any commitment that I might make to them," Churchill explained.

Churchill said that the whole landfill siting dilemma is a Catch 22 situation, but that the Antioch hearings probably have opened up the eyes of the county board.

"There's a Catch 22 in the law because if you give the power of siting to local government, no landfill application will ever be approved, regardless of whether or not the site is necessary.

"If you give the power to the state, the site will be approved regardless of the local citizens' concerns," Churchill added.

"As a result of the Antioch hearings, the county board will hopefully understand that Catch 22 and recognize that the county must take a leadership role in disposal of waste," he added.

"The county needs one central county-wide site, large enough to service the whole county safely for several decades," Churchill noted. "The county must also investigate the possibility of waste reclamation and recycling plant. If it is feasible, the county could contract with a private company to build and operate such a plant and county-wide site."

Churchill said the county could use its bonding powers to issue Industrial Revenue Bonds for financing both the site and the plant. The company could get low interest financing and handle all the operations and the county would get the revenues from the site and maintain control over the operation.

"I can probably speak best because I've been in the hot seat, but we have to realize that the time, commitment, cost, political pressure and emotions that are involved in landfill site hearings can't be allowed to continue," said Churchill.

Churchill said he will be pressing his opponent to address the real issues of the campaign.

"So far he's shown me he's a one issue candidate. I call him the phantom candidate," Churchill said of Gesiakowski. "He's running a one-township campaign."

The Time Machine

FIFTY YEARS AGO: Sept. 8, 1932

The enrollment of Antioch High School was all the way up to 253 students.

Chase Webb's General Merchandise Store had the best window in town with its fishing display complete with a stuffed 38-pound muskie.

Otto S. Klass, "Outfitters of Men and Boys" advertised a big selection of trousers at $1.95 and up.

Russ McNeil and Lloyd Barnstable were two of the Antioch 4-H'ers who returned from the Northern Illinois Junior Fair at Aurora with ribbons and cash prizes.

Sneak thieves took $25 from Radke's Barber Shop and $185 in gold and plates from Dr. John Zimmermann.

The Antioch Country Fair was set to feature the area's finest artists in an art display.

FORTY YEARS AGO: Sept. 4, 1952

The enrollment at Antioch Community High School was now 1,100 students.

Fern Lux, who recently resigned her position at the Antioch Grade School, was teaching at the Washington School in Waukegan.

Antioch insurance man, Loren Sexauer, was offering polio insurance for two years for $15.

Marilyn Bushing was the blushing bride of G. Glenn Ellis. Two hundred pupils made their First Holy Communion at St. Peter's.

The News carried a Korean War story wherein, for the first time in its 176-year-history, the United States Marines admitted defeat.

TEN YEARS AGO: Sept. 6, 1972

Antioch Football Coach Roy Nelson wasn't painting any rosy pictures of this year's local football prospects with only eight veterans returning to the squad this season.

"But we will win our share of ball games," he said.

The village of Antioch was working on the annexation of Homer LaPlante's property, four acres east of Rte. 83 and south of Rte. 173.

The Tully Clown Club named Richard Major to receive the Foster Father Award.

Antioch High School switched its grading periods from every six weeks to every nine weeks.

"Man From LaManchia" was slated to launch PM&L's 12th season.

Diana Jenson graduated from Augustana College, Rock Island, with a nursing degree.

Mrs. Frank Miller was growing sunflowers in her yard that were 14 and one-half feet tall.

Pam Hunley won a blue ribbon in public speaking at the Lake County Fair.

There were no sheep in America before 1540.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

It looks like those who get a dinner invitation to the home of Richard and Sally Schlarbaum might have a culinary delight to look forward to if they can talk their son James into doing the cooking.

He just graduated from the Culinary Institute of America after taking a 21-month course in gourmet food preparation and service.

Esther Aiani tells me that the American Assn. of Retired Persons (AARP) is hosting its annual fall meeting of volunteer leaders at the Hilton Inn in Kalamazoo, Mich.

The theme of the three-day conference will be "Developing Dynamic Chapter and Units," and state directors and coordinators from Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois will be in attendance.

AARP will resume their meetings on Tuesday, Sept. 14 at the Antioch Area Senior Center.

Members of Alyce's All Star Twirlers want me to thank those who bought candy in their recent benefit to raise funds to get the twirlers to the Hawaiian International Festival in Honolulu, Hawaii, next June. They are especially grateful to the State Bank of Antioch and the First National Bank of Antioch for the use of their facilities for the sales.

I see that the Independent Voters of Illinois have endorsed Antioch local son candidate for Congress, Dan DeFosse.

DeFosse said, "This endorsement illustrates the fact that this race is more than the traditional Democrats versus Republicans. The issues run across party lines. This year it is especially important to vote for the candidate according to his position, not according to his party."

Oops, sorry. There was a little mix-up in last week's column. It was Bob Swenson alone, son of Ellen Swenson and brother of George Swenson and Nancy Zitkus, who participated in the Special Olympic Summer Games at Illinois State University, Normal, winning a bronze medal for the softball throw and a blue ribbon for the 50-yard dash.

Ken Mazucca, owner of the 911 Club on Rte. 173, called in reference to the front page article in last week's News, on the revocation of Kenneth Hartog's probation after being in the club. Mazucca wants it to be known that he himself called the police because Hartog and his friend were intoxicated when they entered the bar.

"I don't serve 20-year-olds and Hartog was not served in my establishment," he said.

AARP members see Galena

On Thursday, August 26, 45 members of Antioch Chapter 387, (AARP), boarded a bus and left Antioch at 6 a.m. for a day of fun in Galena.

A stop was made in Rockford for breakfast before continuing on to Galena. Upon arrival in Galena a tour was taken of General Grant's home after which the group spent an hour browsing thru the quaint shops for which Galena is noted.

The members crossed the Mississippi for a buffet lunch in DuBuque, Ia. Then came the climax of the trip...a two hour cruise on the historic Mississippi River aboard the "Spirit of DuBuque", a paddlewheeler with three decks.

Everyone had a great time and a big THANK YOU was extended to Glenn Peterson, program chairman, for planning the trip and making it all possible.

After adjournment of two months for the summer, Antioch Chapter 387, AARP, will hold their first meeting of the new session on Tuesday, Sept. 14. Members will welcome the new officers headed by Ruth Rynders, newly elected president.

PM&L sets stage for 'Guy and Dolls'

There will be singing, dancing, and crap shooting mixed with soul saving in "Guys and Dolls" at PM&L Theater, beginning Sept. 17.

Among the cast members will be Mark Badtke and Rox Trusky, who will be playing opposite each other again as Sky Masterson and Sarah Brown. Regular PM&L-goers may remember them as the proud parents of the very large family in last season's "Carousel".

Mark Badtke of the Wilmot Cafe Badtkes is relatively new to PM&L, having joined last season. A large variety of shows are included in his repertoire and Mark is presently working in connection with the shows at Marriott's Great America.

Rox Trusky has been a member of PM&L along with her parents and sister for many years and has portrayed a number of roles in such shows as "Something's A Foot", "Dracula" and "Carousel". She has also been involved in productions done by Fool's Players of Antioch.

"Guys and Dolls" will be performed at PM&L Theater, 877 Main St. on Sept. 17, 18, 24, 25, and Oct. 1 and 2 at 8:30 p.m. A 2:30 p.m. matinee will also be performed on Sept. 26. Season tickets are now available at the box office. A number of different passes are now being offered, for information and reservations call (312) 395-3055.

Dinner-theater packages are available with the Village Pub on Main St. in Antioch for all Saturday and Sunday performances (Call (312) 395-3373 for Pub reservations) and Raybomb's Restaurant and Parlor on Rte. 59 south of Antioch. (Call 312/356-3166 for Raybomb reservations.)

Dinner-theater packages can be obtained by any area restaurant by contacting PM&L President Tom Hausman, at (312) 395-7489.

GOP PICNIC COOKS — Republican candidates and officials, who are doubling as committee members for the Sept. 12 annual family outing at the new Serbian Orthodox Monastery (formerly Willow Park) off Rt. 45, on Druce Lake, are shown inspecting the menu for the "all you can eat" feature. Committee Chairman and candidates for County Clerk Harry Thomas, left, appears satisfied with the recipes of Coroner Mickey Babcox, candidate for sheriff, and County Treasurer Red Anderson, standing in for Cook Frank Nustra, recorder of deeds. GOP Party Chairman Bob Neal looks on with delight.

Grade schools adopt reduced meal policy

The Antioch Community Consolidated School District 34 has announced its policy for free lunch and reduced price lunch for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch and Special Milk Programs for the following schools: Antioch Lower Grade, Oakland Grade, W.C. Petty and Antioch Upper Grade School.

Local school officials have adopted a family size income criteria for determining eligibility which is available from the school office.

Children from families whose income is at or below the level shown are eligible for free meals or reduced price meals.

Applications may be submitted at any time during the year and are available at the principal's office in each school.

Ostergaard lead slips

Antioch's Chuck Ostergaard, who has had a point lead most of the racing season at Wilmot Speedway, is down to a short 15-point lead going into the championship race for late model sportsmen on Saturday, Sept. 11.

With Jim Zwirgdas gaining momentum in the last few weeks, Ostergaard's accident on Saturday, Sept. 4 and Zwirgdas' win of that feature race, the two will go down to the wire when the season's champ is decided next Saturday, with the first race slated to go at 7:30 p.m.

To discourage the possibility of misrepresentation, the application forms contain a statement above the space for signature certifying that all information furnished in the application is true and correct.

GOP rolls sleeves up

Lake County GOP candidates and office holders have "rolled up their sleeves" to work for a big crowd at this year's annual event Sunday, September 12, from noon til 6 p.m. at the Serbian Orthodox Monastery (formerly Old Willow Park) at Druce Lake on Rte. 45, between Washington St. and Rte. 132.

Governor James Thompson is the headline attraction to the day's activities which are expected to also draw all state-wide, congressional, and local candidates and officials.

In addition to an opportunity to "dunk the politicians," this year's schedule features a full range of games and attractions.

"All you can eat" hamburgers, hot dogs, beans, chips and salad will be included in the ticket price of $5. Children 12 and under are admitted free. Beer and soft drinks will be available.

Tickets and further information can be obtained from Republican Headquarters, 128 N. Genesee St., Waukegan, (312) 623-0235 or from your Republican Precinct Committeeman, candidates, or officials.

An additional statement is added to warn that the application is being made in connection with the receipt of federal funds, that school officials may, for cause, verify the information in the application, and that deliberate misrepresentation of information may subject the applicant to prosecution under applicable state and criminal statutes.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for free or reduced price meals for them, the family should contact the school.

If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child nutrition programs, no child will be discriminated against because of his/her race, sex, color, or national origin.

Sequoits open with Tigers

The Antioch Sequoits will play their first football game of the season on Friday, Sept. 10, at Crystal Lake Central. They will face the Crystal Lake Central Tigers in non-conference games.

Sophomores will play at 6 p.m. and the varsity will kick-off at 8 p.m.

INTRODUCING THE NIGHT SHIFT.

Maybe you never noticed it, but during the day people use a lot of electricity.

It usually takes everything we've got, even our expensive oil burners, to keep up with the demand. So electricity costs a lot more to make. And people have to pay more for it.

That's why Ice Storage, a revolutionary cooling system for big buildings, is better than regular air conditioning.

It works at night instead, when the demand for electricity goes way down and our main generating stations, the ones that run on low-cost coal and uranium, hardly work up a sweat. And electricity costs up to four-and-a-half times less to make.

All night long, it creates ice. And cold. And more ice. And more cold. Enough to keep an army of Eskimos feeling right at home. So when 8 a.m. rolls around and the day shift is ready to face another hot one, all that cold is ready too. Ready to circulate through the building and keep everybody cool till the sun goes down.

For sure, we'll all be a lot better off when there are more innovations like the Ice Storage system. That's why we're researching and developing other ideas to slow the growing daytime demand for electricity, especially in the summer.

In the meantime, if we can all do a little something to put off using electricity during the day, like not running the dishwasher or clothes dryer until 9 or 10 p.m., it can make a difference now.

Shifting some of the demand to night can keep costs down. And just maybe, help us all get some control over tomorrow.
